Waco Daily News.

A MEAN ADVANTAGE.

In the weekly edition of the St. Louis Republic on April 8, in the Texas department appears a long letter from the special correspondent at Austin under date April 4.

In this letter the correspondent pretends to size up the present gubernatorial campaign in Texas and in his effort to boast Governor Hogg does not hesitate to stab Judge Clark and his cause with the usual falsehoods and misrepresentation employed by the administration helpers. He charges that the Mills campaign for the senate and his victory over Chilton was the signal for the precipitation of a sectional cry against East Texas and is now being used by Judge Clark and his friends for the purpose of defeating Hogg, and says: "At present it appears to be the field against East Texas, or, to be more explicit, against Tyler and what the anti-administration papers see fit to characterize as the Tyler gang." Then comes a defense of the Tyler politicians and the reiteration: "The cries of 'anything to down East Texas' and of 'anything to beat the Tyler gang' have been adopted by the supporters of Geo. Clark." The correspondent says: "The issue is not an elective or an appointive commission, but commission itself." Thus is he aiding the Hogg supporters to cover up the real issues and substitute a question already settled. He also says Clark and his friends have no hopes of securing delegates enough to nominate him but only expect to secure a little more than one-third of the delegates lock the convention and force the nomination of a compromise candidate, which charge is false as are all the others above mentioned.

The daily St. Louis Republic did not contain this letter which is a chain of misrepresentations from one end to the other and herein lies the mean advantage it has taken of the Texas papers which are fighting the battle of the people against the bosses and demagogues. The weekly rarely if ever exchanges with the daily papers and THE NEWS would not have known of this letter had not a subscriber kindly furnished a copy. It is therefore a mere chance that this underhand scheme to boost Governor Hogg at the expense of truth and justice is exposed.

The readers of THE NEWS must not forget that according to the call of the executive committee the Democrats will meet in their respective voting precincts Saturday May 7 for the purpose of electing delegates to the county convention May 14, which convention is to elect delegates to the state convention at Lampasas June 7, and also to the congressional convention the time for which has not yet been fixed, to nominate a candidate for congress to fill the vacancy created by the election of Roger Q. Mills to the senate. This is the first conventions to be held and the date May 7 should be remembered.

The Hogg lieutenants cannot defend their chief against the charges of maladministration and will not try. They prefer to insult the intelligence of the people by the cry of "Hogg and commission."

The Hogg rally of Austin was a fiasco. There were not a dozen Hogg men there outside of the legislature and a few local office holders. Farmer Shaw was there of course.

JUDGE CLARK'S APPOINTMENTS.

Hillshoro, Wednesday, April 13.
Waxahachie, Thursday, April 14.
Corsicana, Saturday, April 16.

Other appointments will be announced from time to time. Gov. Hogg is invited to be present at any appointment and participate on equal terms.

SOME CLIPPINGS.

The Gatesville Star forgetting that it had flopped from Clark to Hogg a week before has this:

"The Star has always endeavored to respect other papers opinions and feelings, believing in the truth as enunciated by our great American Magna Charta, that all men are born free and equal. Hence all have the right to employ any means whatsoever in the pursuit of life liberty and happiness so long as those means do not conflict with the right of others. We have no word of paliation nor sense of sympathy for the infinitesimal soul who with base ingratitude impugns the motives of men whose methods are more successful than their own."

The Star then remembering that it had expoused the cause of Hogg proceeded in another column to charge that the Galveston-Dallas News was the emissary of the corporations.

The Gatesville Post is making a gallant fight for Judge Clark in Coryell county. It says:

"Hogg says to the voters of Texas: 'You have not enough intelligence and integrity to be trusted to elect railroad commissioners. I will appoint them for you.' Clark says: 'The commission is an institution of your creation. It is your property and you should be trusted to elect whom you want to serve you.' That is the difference. Hogg has no confidence in the people's judgment; Clark says he has no right to impugn it. Hogg would abridge your rights; Clark would uphold them. Take your choice."

The Gazette says:

The man with half an eye can see that the organization of the third party is going to weaken the forces of Candidate Hogg, and by so much strengthen the cause of Candidate Clark.

THE NEWS has believed all along that the majority of the true, all wool and a yard wide Democrats were for Clark, but did not expect the Gazette to admit it.

The WACO EVENING NEWS is the neatest, brightest, newsiest afternoon paper in Texas.—Central Texan.

Coming, as this does, from one of the ablest and most capable editors in the Lone Star State, THE NEWS will endeavor to make its appreciation commensurate with the value of the compliment.

For governor: George Clark. Platform: Let an intelligent people be free.

"For God sake pull Clark off of us," is the wail of the Hogg lieutenants.

Colonel Henry E. McCulloch is trying very hard to get in range of the third candidate lightening.

Rhode Island like Ohio always goes Republican at the state election next preceeding a presidential election.

Sawine Robertson, in a speech last Saturday at Forney, said: "If you have lost confidence in Gov. Hogg, if you believe he is not competent and that the interests of the state demand a change, elect some one else, but don't take Judge Clark." This looks as though, with him, it is anybody to beat Clark. The charge has been repeatedly made that George Clark is running just to defeat Hogg, and would be satisfied whether he was elected or not, if Hogg was beaten. Now they are trying to beat Clark with Hogg if they can, if not, with "any body, Lord," to keep Clark off of them. Cowardice never did win in this country and it never will.

It Does Not Matter if McCulloch Mayor.
